

Presents

STRATEGIC DECISION MAKING in the RURAL and SUBURBAN ENVIRONMENT

Instructed by Chief Jim Walkowski and Lt. Larry Creekmore

February 4, 2012 & February 5, 2012 @ GCFD#3 St. 31
1201 Central Ave. S. Quincy, WA. 98848

Cost will be $40.00 per student with lunch and a field trip to a local data center included.
Contact Asst. Chief Tony Leibelt to register.

aleibelt@gcfd3.net

Office: 509-787-2713 Cell:509-797-5010

Basic Command Structure	How to Develop Strategy and Select Tactics
Personnel Accountability	What is Killing Today's Firefighters?
Situational Awareness	How Do We Fail on the Fireground?
Risk vs. Gain	ICS Positions
SCBA Air Management	Victim Survivability Profiling
Rapid Intervention	Debunking Fire Service Myths with Science
Determining Incident Modes	How to Conduct a Size-Up and Develop an IAP

Chief Jim Walkowski – Has 26 years in the fire service and currently serves as Fire Chief with the Riverside Fire Authority. He has served as a firefighter, company officer, and chief officer. Chief Walkowski has presented numerous fire service related training classes, many of these focused on firefighter safety and preservation.

Lieutenant Larry Creekmore – Has 29 years in the fire service with both South Kitsap Fire and Rescue and currently serves as a Lieutenant and Training Officer with the City of DuPont Fire Department. Lieutenant Creekmore has been involved with fire service instruction since 1986.